HOWARD P. SPEDDEN FOUND IN RIVER

Former Prominent Business Man And County Commissioner Drowned Himself. Body Found This Morning.

As this issue goes to press the news has just been received that former County Commissioner Howard P. Spedden, who was for many years engaged in the mercantile and canning business at James, in the Neck District, had been found drowned in the Choptank River off Cambridge.

The body was found this morning about half way between the Long Wharf and the bell buoy by Messrs. Elbert D. Phillips and Stephen M. Twigg, who had been down the river and were returning when they saw the body of a man. Upon investigation it proved to be that of Mr. Spedden.
